

Bird and Squirrel

On the Edge

by James Burks

Review by Ben T.

It's a book where Bird and Squirrel are heading home but trouble always seems to get in their way! And on their way home they find a bear who is getting attacked by a hungry gang of wolves! And squirrel is scared of all of the dark corners [including the wolves]what will he do?

Why did you like this book?

Because its action packed with monsters and other characters so you never know what's going to happen next!

Why should someone read it?

Because they would enjoy all the characters and the comedy that you read in this book! Plus its a book where you want to read to the next page it's so exciting!
